

Amy Barefield, RN, CCM
Nurse Liaison

Amy Barefield received her degree as a Registered Nurse in 2000 from Penn Valley in Kansas City, Missouri, after which she spent the next fifteen years as a certified case manager in the field of workers compensation. In 2015, Amy was recruited to the team at QLI, a national center of excellence for individuals rehabilitating from brain or spinal cord injury. Amy's skills in the nursing and workers compensation fields have made her a key member of QLI's chronic pain rehabilitation team, evaluating potential clients and serving as a liaison between families, payors and the clinical team.
