Tony Andersen is Managing Counsel for Andersen & Associates in Overland Park, Kansas and West Des Moines, Iowa. He is licensed to practice in Kansas, Missouri and Iowa.

Mr. Andersen has represented employers and insurance carriers in workers' compensation cases for over thirty years. He collaborates with clients and carriers to reduce the frequency and severity of claims, investigate questionable injuries, and aggressively defend the employer/carrier in state proceedings.

Mr. Andersen has successfully argued many cases in the appellate courts of Kansas and Missouri as well as the Kansas Workers' Compensation Board of Appeals and Missouri's Labor and Industrial Relations Commission.

Mr. Andersen is a frequent lecturer on basic and advanced workers' compensation topics. For the past 12 years, he has co-authored, with Douglas Greenwald of McAnany, Van Cleave & Phillips, the workers' compensation law section of the Kansas Bar Association's Annual Survey of Law. He is AV-rated by the Martindale-Hubbell rating service. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Kansas Self-Insured Association and Kid's Chance – Missouri.

Mr. Andersen is a graduate of Leadership Lenexa and was voted 2003 Boss of the Year by the Kansas City Legal Secretaries Association. He is active in his church. Mr. Andersen is married with three children and spends his free time with his family and on the golf course.
